

Housing & Utilities

Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP)

This program provides financial help to households that are unable to pay rent or utilities, or who have fallen behind in payment for rent, utilities (electricity, water, sewer, etc.) home energy costs, and other expenses related to housing. For people who qualify, the program provides temporary help or assistance in these areas to help maintain housing stability.

Frequently Asked Questions
